S. A. Miller Wins Challenge in Bonspiel

Is also runner-up in second event, losing to Willeson in final game. Jim Marshall wins consolation.

S. A. Miller just missed making a clean sweep of the town bonspiel, played off last week and concluded Monday night. Reaching the finals of the challenge and second event, he won the former, but lost the last game in the latter to Chris. Willeson.

Jim Marshall went out one two in the first and second competitions, but came back strongly in the consolation series to win the event.

Charts showing the games played in the challenge and second event are published on this page. A chart of the consolation series will be found on page 2.

Farmers Meet Munroe Re Organizing Rural Telephone Companies

A large number of farmers were in town today to meet Mr. A. M. Munroe, service supervisor of Alberta Government Telephones, and hear plans for the organization of rural line companies. As a result of the meeting held, organization will proceed.

Excel Items

Excel U.F.W.A. held their February meeting at the home of Miss Rose Spohn. The attendance was rather small, only five members and two visitors being present. Mrs. F. E. Bishop, 2nd vice-president, was in the chair. It was decided to proceed with plans for making a hope chest to be raffled later. The next meeting will be held in Excel with Mrs. C. A. Bishop and Mrs. A. Arneson in charge.

Bown Junior U.F.A. held a very successful dance in Farming Valley school on February 22. Those present enjoyed the good music played by the O.K. orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Steen were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bishop were week-end visitors in Calgary.

Miss Rose Spohn spent the week-end in Calgary where she was the guest of Miss Janet McKinnon.

Mrs. Bowlby, Miss McKinnon's mother, passed away last week at their home in Calgary.

While en route to the junior dance last Friday, a sleighload of young people were entertained at the home of Mr. F. E. Bishop.

Mrs. George Rogers has moved to a small house on the farm of Mr. E. Vanstone

About Town and Country

Mr. Thos. Lees, accompanied by his son Bob and daughter Bella, left last Sunday for Calgary, where they will spend the fore part of this week.

Mrs. Robert A. McLaren, who was a week-end visitor in Calgary, returned home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. J. Skinner left last Friday for Calgary where she will spend the next few weeks.

Miss Olive Partridge left last Friday for Calgary en route to Stavely where she will teach school.

so that her two granddaughters, the Misses Eileen Rogers and Grace McCall might be close to school.

The dance put on by the Excel orchestra in Excel school last Friday was the usual success.

A whist, bridge and dance will be held in the Masonic hall, Oyen, on Thursday, February 28, under the auspices of the W.A. Admission 35 cents.
